

As an XM Radio subscriber I believe that it is more than fair that XM listeners should benefit from traffic and weather updates. It should not be up to other public radio stations to dictate who should be allowed to receive traffic and weather information.